The Staffordshire Hoard

We are delighted to be listing wines from our own county of Staffordshire.

These wines come from two different vineyards: Halfpenny Green Wine Estate, situated in Bobbington and run by the Vickers family since 1984, and Pattingham Vineyard, a newcomer on the scene, owned by the Wilcox family, the first vines only planted in 2018.

Both make exemplary wines and show how modern winemaking and new grape varieties are allowing English winemaking to thrive across the country.

Sparkling Wine

125ml 175ml Bottle

801 Pattingham Vineyard Brut 55.00

Made from a blend of 50% Pinot Noir and 50% Seyval Blanc this excellent champagne method wine comes from the 2020 vintage and is aged for 24 months on its lees before bottling. It has lovely citrus fruit on the nose and elegant stone fruit on the palate. (vg)

Red Wine

802 Halfpenny Green 'Penny Red' 6.50 8.50 35.00

A smooth, mellow red with delectable black cherry and forest fruits both on the nose and the palate. Made from a blend of Rondo, Regent, Triomphe and Divico. (vg)

803 Pattingham 'Rudge Heath' Divico 50.00

A stunning red from what is fast becoming England's most exciting red grape: the Divico. Matthew Jukes is a fan: 'This deeply fruited Divico has an admirable depth of blackberry and black cherry tones coupled with an enticing dusting of sweet spices.' Vineyard Feb 23 (vg)

White Wine

804 Halfpenny Green Bacchus 40.00

This is England's showcase white grape: the cool climate lifts its acidity and gives it a herbal character with crisp elderflower and lime fruit flavours on the palate. (vg)
